Code of Conduct training plays a critical role in mitigating risk in an organization by sharing company expectations and values, regulations and best practices to employees and third parties.

At Peak, clients are presented with an extensive list of training topics from which to choose, building the e-learning training course to meet your specific requirements. Training topics included in our Code of Conduct library course include:

- Introduction to Code of Conduct
- Code of Conduct: About Our Code
- Protecting Confidential Information
- Privacy & Information Security
- Conflicts of Interest
- Anti-Bribery & Corruption
- Trade & Export Compliance
- Antitrust & Competition Law
- Insider Trading
- Preventing Harassment & Discrimination
- Diversity & Respect in The Workplace
- Avoiding Workplace Violence
- Attestation
- Quiz

Customization services are available for editing of existing content, as well as the development of additional content and/or topics.

To discuss your requirements and how Peak can help you to easily and affordably launch and complete your Code of Conduct training initiative, please contact us at: info@peakcompliancetraining.com